Judicial delays can become history